Change of compliance plan auditor

Newmark Capital Limited advises that it has appointed ShineWing Australia as the compliance plan auditor of the Newmark Hardware Trust ('Trust'), replacing Pitcher Partners.

ShineWing Australia was appointed as the financial auditor of the Trust in March 2020 and this completes the appointment process. ShineWing Australia was selected following a competitive tender process undertaken to assess the resourcing, approach, quality assurance, independence, governance, fees and additional services of a range of audit firms. The change will result in high quality audit services and cost savings to the Trust for the benefit of investors.
